

Our goal at the San Antonio Pediatric Developmental Services Clinic is to provide high-quality care to children with developmental delays or those who are at risk for developmental delays. Part of caring for the child is being aware of family history and social stressors which may affect the child. We would ask you to complete the following information to help us help you and your child as much as possible.

Who lives at home with the child (name, age, and relationship)?

---

---

---

How tall is biologic mother? _____

How tall is biologic father? _____

Please circle any of the following illnesses that a family member has been diagnosed with:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| Learning problems (including special education) | Mental retardation/cognitive impairment |
| Hearing loss                                    | Thyroid problems                        |
| ADHD or ADD                                     | Known genetic disorder                  |
| Bipolar disorder                                | Sudden death of unknown cause           |
| Depression                                      | Heart rhythm problems                   |
| Anxiety   | Cholesterol problems                    |
| Schizophrenia                                   | High blood pressure                     |
| Mood disorder                                   | Diabetes                                |
| Seizures  | Heart attack under age 50               |
| Substance/alcohol abuse                         |   |

Over the past 2 weeks have you ever felt down, depressed or hopeless? Yes or No

Over the past 2 weeks have you felt little interest or pleasure in doing things? Yes or No

Within the past 12 months have you worried your food would run out before you got money to buy more?
Yes or No

Within the past 12 months has the food you bought run out and you didn't have money to get more?
Yes or No